

THE BIG STONE GAP POST.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 22, 1913.

Published Every Wednesday by the WISE PRINTING COMPANY, Incorporated.

GILBERT N. KNIGHT, - Editor.

One Year, - - - $1.00
Six Months, - - - .50 Three Months, - - - .25Entered according to postal regulations at the post office at Big Stone Gap as second-class matter.

SUBSCRIBERS are earnestly requested to observe the date printed on their address slips, which will keep them at all times posted as to the date of the expiration of their subscription. Prompt and timely attention to this request will save all parties a great deal of annoyance.

President J. F. Bullitt, of the Pure Elections Society of the Ninth congressional district of Virginia, has mailed blanks to legislative candidates throughout the district, seeking signatures to a pledge against the illegal use of money, or the use of any questionable methods to influence votes in the November election. This society was organized three years ago, following a campaign in which it was alleged that money was used in immense sums to influence voters. The society has been making war on corrupt methods ever since, and has made considerable headway in clearing the political atmosphere in Southwest Virginia.
It has been greatly aided by the courts, grand jury investigations having been made in several of the counties, with the result that numerous indictments were made.

We call your attention to the advertisement of the auction sale of choice residence lots in Big Stone Gap on next Saturday. These lots will be put on sale and will go to the highest bidder and the terms of sale is only one-third down and the balance in one and two years.
You should attend this sale and avail yourself of the opportunity to buy some choice lots at a bargain. The future rapid growth of this town is an assured fact and the price of real estate in a few years will be much higher than at present, although some think it is already too high. There is bound to be a great city somewhere in this Appalachian country, and the wise ones say Big Stone Gap is the place, so get on the band wagon.

Appalachia Items

J. S. McConnell spent Monday in Wise.

were up from East Stone Gap Saturday.

J. M. Johnson was in town the first of the week.

Mrs. B. S. Grim and Mrs.
Owen Maddox visited in East Stone Gap Saturday morning.

Auction sale of town lots makes one think of olden times.
Attend the sale Saturday and get your spirits revived.

Miss Ethel Olinger, cashier for the Stone Gap Coke and Coal Company at Stone Gap, spent Sunday in town with relatives.

H. L. Gilly, of Norton, was a visitor to the Gap one day last week.

Messrs. A. L. Witt and J. B.
Wampler, returned last week from a visit to the exposition at Knoxville.

J. B. Dougherty and family are spending several days visiting Mr. Dougherty's homefolks in Scott County.

Guy L. Pugh, of St. Paul, spent Sunday night in the Gap.

Misses Julia and Addie Bledsoe, of Canton, Scott County, were in the Gap last week visiting relatives and friends.

week in Jonesville on professional business.

O. W. Pierpoint, of Lexington, Ky., spent several days the past week in the Gap visiting his brother, J. H. Pierpoint.

M. F. Collier, Ensign on the battleship South Carolina, who has been visiting homefolks here for a few days, will leave Thursday night for Knoxville, accompanied by his mother, to visit H. H. Naff. From there Mrs. Collier will go to California to visit her daughter, Mrs.
W. A. Carden.

Rev. W. N. Wagner, the new pastor of the Southern Methodist Church, will preach at the Baptist Church next Sunday morning. This will be Rev.
Wagner's first sermon in the Gap and no doubt a large congregation will hear him. Mr.
Craft will, at the same hour, preach the dedicatory sermon of the new Baptist Church at Keokee. Service at night at 7:30 o'clock.

Charlie Rensor, colored, was arrested last Wednesday night by policeman R. H. Bryant for bootlegging and was tried before Mayor Fleener, which trial resulted in him being fined $50.00 and cost. The verdict not being satisfactory to the defendant the case was appealed to circuit court.

A very sad accident happened in Turkey Cove on last Friday afternoon at about 5:30 o'clock, when Paul, the 6 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. D. S.
Rensor, got his foot caught in a carriage wheel, breaking his leg, and otherwise bruising him up so badly that he died Saturday morning at 2 o'clock. The little boy had walked up the road some distance from home to meet his father's carriage, which was being driven by Jake Young. After meeting the carriage he attempted to get on from the back end and his foot got caught in the wheel which very near tore his leg off. Mrs. Gilmer and Baker were immediately summoned from town and everything possible was done to save the little fellow's life, but the wound had bled so much before the physicians arrived, that he died Saturday morning. The remains were buried Saturday afternoon in the family graveyard.

Any one desiring pure bred Rhode Island red chickens would do well to see Rev. I. P.
Martin at once. His chickens are perfect in color and form.
Only a few are for sale.

While at work at J. B. Dil-lion's saw mill, near the V. & S. W. Depot, on last Saturday, Asbury Stacy, the 14 year old son of William Stacy, who lives in the Palmer property, on East Fifth street, was struck on the forehead just below the left eye by a small piece of slab that caught on the saw, and badly hurt about the eye, which will have to be removed.
He was taken to Bristol Sunday morning for an examination and treatment. Saturday was the first day the young man had worked at the mill.

Farmers' Club
Exhibition
Day.

The committee appointed to procure exhibits report that a number of articles of produce and several head of live stock and some poultry will be shown at the Town Hall next Saturday, October 25th. The country people are showing enough interest in the matter to justify the hope that for next year a respectable district fair can be worked up. If the town people really believe this would be a good thing, they should turn out Saturday and help make the exhibition a success.
It will be impossible to classify the exhibits until Saturday, but the prize committee will secure a few small prizes, and prize ribbons.

The ears of corn in the corn contest will be on exhibition and the prizes therefor awarded. Mr. Stiles, the County farm demonstrator, will be on hand to talk to the farmers and it is hoped that a large number will turn out, as it will be worth while to see what your neighbor has been doing, and get together and swap ideas.

Dan, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Marrs, while playing at home last Thursday, fell off the fence and broke his right arm just below the elbow.

The postoffice at East Stone Gap, was robbed at a late hour last Wednesday night by burglars. The safe was cracked and about $60.00 in money taken, the stamps being left, as the explosion tore them to pieces. People living close by heard the report, but thought it was somebody shooting and therefore did not try to find the cause. Up to this time the thieves have not been apprehended. It is thought to be the work of amateurs.

Quite a crowd from town went to High Knob Saturday afternoon to camp out and gather chestnuts. They went in wagons to the foot of the mountain and walked the rest of the way, arriving there about an hour after dark. Camps was pitched at the rock cave and a good supper was prepared. Everyone being very tired and hungry, ate hearty of the many good things to eat. Sunday morning it rained, and the crowd walked to Norton and came home on the afternoon train. Of course the rain marred their trip to some extent, but all seemed to enjoy it very much and expressed the hope to go again. Those who went were: Mrs. W. A. Baker, Mrs.
Lanham, Mrs. Pearle Parsons, Mrs. W. B. Carnes, Misses Olga Horton, Thelma Baker, Sarah Cochran, Stella Head, Edna Gilly and Roland Wells. Messrs.
Groselose, Greear, Jerome Wells, Percy Yarborough, Tom Cochran, Willie Baker, Martin Carnes, also Roy Maness and Edward Patton, of Norton.

Rev. J. B. Craft returned from Pulaski Thursday night, where, for ten days, he conducted revival services. The meetings were successful from every viewpoint. Large crowds attended and many Christians renewed their vows to the Lord, and sinners were converted and added to the church. Mr.
Craft reports that the co operation and fellowship of the other pastors and churches in the town was strong and helpful.
Lasting good was accomplished.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. A. P.
Reese in the Cove last Wednesday, a boy.

Mrs. Benjamin Richmond
Dead.

Mrs. Benjamin Richmond, of East Stone Gap, died last Thursday at Marion, Va., where she was taken for treatment.
A stroke of paralysis was the direct cause of her death.

The funeral services were held at the Methodist Church at East Stone Gap, Va., Saturday afternoon by Rev. Henry Wampler and her remains were laid to rest in the East Stone Gap cemetery.

The deceased was about seventy years of age at the time of her death, and leaves a husband, J. B. Richmond and a son, J. B. Richmond, both of East Stone Gap, to mourn her sudden death. They have the sympathy of the entire community.

Rev. W. N. Wagner, the new Southern Methodist preacher appointed to the charge at this place by the last annual conference, and wife, arrived in the Gap last week from Norton, where they were stationed the past year, and are now comfortably located in the station parsonage. Mr. Wagner is one of the best preachers in the conference.

Our attention has been called to the fact that a number of country people who bring butter to town for sale, are not complying with the law as regards to weights. Three-fourths of a pound cakes are sold frequently for one pound, which makes the butter cost about one-third more than it should cost.
A family the other day bought 8 pounds (or eight cakes) and when it was weighed it only weighed six pounds. The law is very stringent about matters of this kind, and we understand it will be investigated.

Golf Champion Match.

The following gentlemen have qualified for the Annual Championship Golf Match to be played off within the next few weeks. They will play as arranged below: J. F. Bullitt and J. W. Gant, D. B. Sayers and C. L. Rowe, J. B. Ayers and H. L. Cummings, H. E.
Fox and Dr. Stoehr. These games are to be played for the championship cup given by the golf club.
